Dear Parents & Carers

We should like to start our Science Week (17th October 2016) in FANCY DRESS. We have always been so impressed by the ingenuity and creativity of our pupils and their parents and carers. The challenge is to dress up as a famous scientist or an invention which has changed the world. This is quite a demanding task so we thought we would give you enough time to think, plan and collect resources. Please wear your costumes on Monday 17th October, to mark the start of a fabulous week on SCIENCE!

Some ideas for Scientists:

Inventions:

The safety pin, the zip, a Biro pen, Duct tape, Velcro, Post-It notes, frozen food, bottle caps, sellotape; paper clips, DNA, The World Wide Web or ...

We hope you enjoy researching, designing and making your costumes. We are looking forward to seeing them.

Good luck!

Kind regards

Yours sincerely
