Dear Parents & Carers

HARVEST FESTIVAL – Wednesday 5th October 2016

We will be celebrating Harvest Festival in School on Wednesday 5th October 2016.

This year we will be collecting for the Canterbury Food Bank. This is a vital community service that provides emergency food parcels to individuals and families in short term financial crisis across the Canterbury District, including Whitstable.

As in previous years, we would ask that children bring gifts of food. Listed below are the specific items the Food Bank requests to enable them to make up nutritionally balanced food parcels:

| | | |
|----------------------|-------------------------------|----------------------------|
| Breakfast Cereal | Rice Pudding (tinned) | Dried Pasta (500g) |
| Sugar (500g) | Sponge Pudding (tinned) | Pasta Sauce |
| Milk (long life) | Custard (tinned or carton) | Baked Beans (tinned) |
| Spaghetti (tinned) | Tea Bags / Coffee (small jar) | Jam |
| Meat (tinned) | Fruit Juice (long life) | Biscuits |
| Vegetables (tinned) | Soup (tinned) | Tomatoes (tinned) |
| Tuna / Fish (tinned) | Cup-a-Soups | Disposable nappies / wipes |
| Fruit (tinned) | Dried Rice (500g) | Baby Food |

(please ensure the sell-by dates are at least three months ahead)

Members of the Seasalter Christian Centre have kindly offered to deliver our donations to the Canterbury Food Bank.

We would like to thank you in advance for supporting this local worthwhile cause.

Yours sincerely

Ms D J Hines
